PART I: ACCESS TO INFORMATION FROM WRITTEN TEXTS (60 points)

Read the newsletter below and then answer questions 1-5.

The Internet Education Community

Dear Subscriber,

Thank you for joining the Internet Education Community (IEC), a group of people committed to increasing the use of the Internet in education. As a member, you will receive our weekly newsletter, IEC News, offering reviews of websites that our experts believe are valuable aids to education. Each of the different sections in the newsletter is devoted to a specific subject. Your suggestions for sites to be included in future editions are always welcome.

Following are this week's recommendations:

MUSIC

10 CLINTJAZZ

www.clintjazz.net

This excellent site introduces piano students to the unique challenges of playing jazz music. Designed and presented by jazz musician Clinton Conrad, the course consists of fifteen 40-minute lessons, each of which requires several hours of practice. The site is a free public service offered by the Musicology Department of Elm University.

SOUNDBOX

www.soundbox.mst

This outstanding website uses music clips, interviews and photographs to trace the evolution of popular music from the 1920s to the present. The Rock & Pop Years section offers exclusive audio and video clips, some of which are presented here for the first time. The site also contains information on major music events as well as lists of the Top Ten tunes from Havana to Helsinki.

ELEMENTARY SKILLS

25 TEACH ME

www.teachme.com

This website offers an interactive individualized course for first and second graders. Intended for use at school or at home, it allows children to learn at their own pace. Teach Me currently provides exercise pages in arithmetic, spelling and vocabulary, with more subjects to be added next year.

Note: The newsletter continues on page 3.

ECONOMICS

GLOBE-ALL

www.globeall.gov.uk

This new Ministry of Commerce website gives users an overview of economic 35 processes from the beginning of the 20th century. While the site contains an excessive number of diagrams, the texts are highly informative, clarifying the events and ideas that have shaped today's global economics. A Teacher Support Center provides suggestions for lessons on related subjects.

ART AND DESIGN

40 DICT-ART

www.dictart.com

This dictionary of visual art is the brainchild of veteran art teacher Michael Delane.
 What began as a short lexicon in 1996 has grown into a massive dictionary of some 2,600 entries. Although the illustrations are magnificent, many of the definitions 45 lack historical context. Fortunately, the website is constantly being updated and Delane promises to make improvements in the near future.
